NEWSLETTER 30 – 10th May 2013

Dear Parents, Pupils & Governors,

Tag Rugby - Miss Mason took our Tag Rugby team to a tournament at Stratford Rugby Club last week. Everyone played really well and the team reached the semi finals. Thank you to parents for transport and support.

Gurdwara Visit – Pupils from year 1 and 2 visited the Sikh Gurdwara Temple in Leamington Spa on Thursday. Our guide, Mr Braich, showed us around the wonderful building and told us stories about the Gurus. We found out all about sharing and looked at the different rooms in the building, used for prayer, celebration and eating (which we all enjoyed!). We found out that the word Sikh means 'To learn' and the word 'Guru' means to teach. We were also lucky enough to see a ceremony for ladies' day with beautiful music and singing.

Boys Football – Due to work commitments Mr Hall is unable to continue coaching the Year 5 and 6 Boys Football club. We would like to thank him for all of his hard work. Mr Gallagher will be continuing coaching the club.

Instrument and Vocal Tuition

- There will be no drum, guitar and vocal lessons next week due to Year 6 SATs, these lessons will be made up later in the term.
- Parents of children in Year 2- 5 have been sent information about music lessons from September 2013. We will be booking the lessons with County Music next week – please ensure requests are sent into school by MONDAY 13th MAY.
