

NEWSLETTER 19 – 5th February 2016

Dear Parents, Pupils & Governors,

Ofsted Inspection - As you are aware we were visited by Ofsted for a one day inspection this week. Their report will be available within the next 4 weeks. Thank you to those parents who responded to their questions either online or at the gate.

Online Payments – Unfortunately we are still having some technical difficulties with the system setup. Parent account activation details will be sent home next week for children in KS2 and the system should go live for school meals over the half term holiday.

Parents Evening – Parents Evenings will be held on Tuesday 9th and Thursday 11th Feb. Appointment times have been sent home. During both sessions, members of the Governing Body will be available to receive feedback on your child's experience of school.

Violin Lessons – Pupils did not have full lessons on Thursday as the teacher was unwell and her work was covered by Mrs Powell-Brett who was unable to cover the full session. The time will be made up on another date.

Vacancy – We currently have a vacancy for a lunch time supervisor; please ask at the office for further information.

Book of the Week – Children in KS1 have been reading 'Mr Wolf's Pancakes' by Jan Fearnley. Mr Wolf fancies some tasty pancakes but he doesn't know how to make them. He cannot ask his unhelpful neighbours so he has to work it out all by himself. So what happens when those nasty neighbours want to help Mr Wolf eat his delicious pancakes . . . ?
